

FOUNDATION

Collegiate Convention Awards

(Biennium Recognition)

Best Financial Support - recognizes the largest cumulative total of funds donated to the Foundation by a collegiate chapter for the Convention biennium.

1. Award and honor roll recipients are determined by the Foundation based on cumulative funds received during the Convention biennium.
2. Foundation staff determines the award and number of honor roll recipients and reserves the right not to make this award.
3. No award application is required.
4. Fraternity Good Standing is not required to be named as an award or honor roll recipient.
5. To provide for enhanced recognition, an award and honor roll recipient(s) may be named in different chapter membership size categories.
6. Chapter membership size categories, established by the Fraternity for its Convention recognition programs, are used for recognizing the top donating chapters for the Convention biennium.

Most Improved Financial Support - recognizes the largest increase in total cumulative biennium contributions to the Foundation by a collegiate chapter from one Convention biennium to the next.

1. Award and honor roll recipients are determined by the Foundation based on dollar differences in cumulative biennium giving from one Convention biennium to the next.
2. The Foundation determines the award and number of honor roll recipients and reserves the right not to make this award.
3. No award application is required.
4. Fraternity Good Standing is not required to be named as an award or honor roll recipient.
5. To provide for enhanced recognition, an award and honor roll recipient(s) may be named in different chapter membership size categories.
6. Chapter membership size categories, established by the Fraternity for its Convention recognition programs, are used for recognizing the chapters with the largest increase in giving from one biennium to the next.
7. Should a chapter's membership size change from one Convention biennium to the next, the most current size category shall be the basis for recognition.

Best New Chapter Support - recognizes the largest cumulative total of funds donated to the Foundation, by a new collegiate chapter, for the Convention biennium.

1. New chapters are based on the Fraternity's New Chapter Development status. A chapter qualifies if they participated in the Fraternity's New Chapter Development program at any time during the Convention biennium.
2. Award and honor roll recipients are determined by the Foundation based on cumulative funds received during the Convention biennium.
3. The Foundation determines the award and number of honor roll recipients and reserves the right not to make this award.
4. No award application is required.
5. Fraternity Good Standing is not required to be named as an award or honor roll recipient.

Creative Fundraising Award – recognizes creativity in a Foundation fundraiser, by a collegiate chapter, during the Convention biennium.

1. The purpose of this award is to provide enhanced recognition for creative Foundation fundraisers and to gather and share new fundraising ideas.
2. Award and honor roll recipients are determined by the Foundation based on a point system.
3. The Foundation determines the award and number of honor roll recipients and reserves the right not to make this award. Chapter membership size is not considered in determining this award.
4. An award application is required.
5. Multiple award applications may be submitted by a collegiate chapter for different Foundation fundraising events held during the biennium.
6. Fraternity Good Standing is not required to be named as an award or honor roll recipient.