Our Commitment to Privacy

The Alpha Gamma Delta Foundation respects the privacy of every visitor to our websites. Your privacy is a priority, and we go to great lengths to protect it. This Privacy Policy describes how we collect and use information about our online visitors. We know you care about your information and we want you to be fully informed about our practices.

This Policy may be changed or updated from time to time. By visiting the Alpha Gamma Delta Foundation at one of our websites or using one of our mobile apps, you accept the practices described in this Policy.

The Data We Collect

Our websites and mobile apps provide convenient ways for you to access our giving pages and learn about the Alpha Gamma Delta Foundation (“we”, “us”, or “the Foundation”). We collect information about our online visitors both directly from our visitors and indirectly from other companies that provide data to us. We use this information to communicate with our supporters and grant applicants and process their transactions and applications. We do not sell it to other organizations.

When you use our websites or apps to make a financial contribution, register for a special event, sign up to volunteer, apply for a job, or apply for a grant, we may ask you for your name, address, phone number(s), and other information relevant to the transaction. We will ask for standard credit card information when you make a financial donation.

We obtain information about our online visitors from other sources as well. For example, we engage vendors that provide contact information and other data. We use this data to help us engage with people who may be interested in participating in Foundation activities or contributing to the Foundation mission.

We also collect non-personal information about our online visitors using “cookies”, pixels, web beacons, and other technologies that operate automatically when you visit our website. We use this information to give our website visitors a more relevant online experience and to help us make website improvements. The information helps us understand which parts of our websites are the most popular, where our online visitors are going, and how long they spend there. If you do not want us to collect information using cookies, you can disable this function in your browser. If you block cookies from us, however, you may not be able to see personalized content and our website may not function optimally.

How We Secure Data

We use a variety of security measures to protect your data. We maintain physical, electronic and procedural safeguards to help prevent unauthorized access to and improper use of personally identifiable information.

We protect the security of credit card transactions by utilizing Blackbaud Merchant Services or Braintree which use a number of measures such as encryption, access controls, network firewalls, and physical security. We use industry standard safeguards to protect your information. These measures make it extremely difficult for anyone to intercept the credit card information you send to us.

No website or electronic data can ever be completely secure, but we are always working to maintain up-to-date and appropriate security mechanisms.

How We Use Your Information

If you provide the Foundation with personal information when you visit our websites or use our mobile apps, we may use the information in our programs and activities. We may enter your information into our database so we can contact you to obtain your input, provide information about our programs and events, request donations, or provide a more personalized online experience.

The Foundation does not sell, trade, or share our donors' personally identifiable information with any other entity, except as described below. We do not send mailings to our donors on behalf of other organizations unless the donor has given us specific permission to do so.

On occasion, the Foundation may share your information with the Alpha Gamma Delta Fraternity, our vendors, and other partners that help us with our fundraising efforts, communications, and grant programs. For example, we share information with vendors that help us manage data and process donations and credit card payments. These vendors are bound by strict confidentiality rules and are permitted to use the information only to support Foundation operations. We also disclose information as required by law.

We Care About Doing it Right

The Foundation is committed to accuracy and precision in processing your information. We have procedures to check for errors, and our systems are periodically audited to make sure we process your information securely and accurately.

If you need to contact us to review your information or make corrections, please contact us using one of the following methods:
